The quarterly conference of the relief society of the Utah stake will be held in Spanish Fork on Monday, October 29, 1894. Mrs. Mary John, President.

This services of Wm. O'Neil have been secured as cook at the Gem Chop house. Mr. O'Neil is a first class cook and will give entire satisfaction to the public.

B. H. ROBERTS was at American Fork last night and it was a great occasion. That splendid orator very nearly surpassed himself. The crowd was large and very enthusiastic. Good work was done, work which will tell on the 8th. Mr. Roberts says we are sure to carry Utah and that the constitutional convention is a sure thing for democracy.

A large company of relatives and friends of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Williams assembled at their residence, Lake View, last night, the occasion being the wedding reception of their daughter Mary. She was married Thursday to Mr. Charles Nuttall of the typographical force of THE DISPATCH. The bride was dressed in rich cream albatross, trimmed with silk lace—she looked lovely. The presents were many and useful, representing all the necessities of newly married people. THE DISPATCH joins in hearty congratulations.

S. R. THURMAN is suffering with lumbago.

Judge H. P. HENDERSON, that great apostle of democracy, will speak in the opera house in this city on Tuesday evening next.

EVERYBODY loves to hear Judge Henderson. Turn out on Tuesday, October 30th.

Judge HENDERSON's logic is masterful. Every sentence he utters is a gem.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder
Most Perfect Made.

Provo is to be congratulated on having added to her population Dr. W. E. Gillman and family. The doctor is an experienced dentist. See his advertisement in THE DISPATCH's professional column today. That he is a worthy citizen the following from the Norwich N. Y. Sun is evidence: "Prof. W. E. Gillman, lately of South Otesie, has taken the advice of Horace Greeley and gone west, where he will engage in the practice of his chosen profession, that of dentistry. He carried in his pocket a diploma and in his heart kind wishes for his many friends in old Chenango. The boys of the South Otesie band appreciated his services as band master to such an extent that they presented him with a solid gold badge in the shape of a lyre with this simple inscription:—"

Presented to
WILLIAM E. GILLMAN,
SEPTEMBER 28, 1894
by S. O. C. B.

When so many people are taking and deriving benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it for yourself? It will build you up. Hood's Sarsaparilla overcomes weakness.

Dr. GILLMAN has enthused the muscles of Provo, and the town now has a "cat's paw" band.

In the case, Alice Butterworth vs. U. S. Bank, et al., was dismissed without prejudice today on motion of the plaintiff, Judge Smith on the bench. Plaintiff was suing for $5,700.00 value of sheep delivered to John and William Rockwell, which she alleged should have been delivered to her. She had leased the sheep to Stewart.

THE INITIAL HOP

Of the Season 1894-5 Given by the Oxford Club

AN ARTISTIC SUCCESS.

The Crowd Was Not Large But the Enjoyment Was Great—The Dances Were Well Conducted—Some Handsome Toilettes Were Displayed by the Charming Ladies.

It was a most elegant little hop indeed that the Oxford club gave last evening at the opera house. It was the club's first dance of the season and it was an exact success. All went smoothly as a marriage bell and no gathering of people anywhere under any circumstances enjoy themselves better or more quietly than did the happy little crowd who were at the Oxford club's initial ball. The house was clean; the floor was smooth; extra work has been put upon it in order that it would be in first class condition, and it was; the ladies were charming and the gents were gallant; Jepperson's band seemed to have practiced for weeks before especially for the occasion, never did they produce better music—the weather was grand, the evening cool; everything was exactly right to make the dance the elegant success it was.

Manager Hedquist, of the Smoot Drug company, managed the floor with excellent grace, with that same painstaking care that marks his every act in life and brings about the grand success he is enjoying. His spirits were high and he was in exact touch with the good spirit that pervaded the room. His work was just right and entirely satisfactory.

The following guests participated in the pleasures of the evening:
Mayor and Mrs. Holbrook, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hendrichsen, Mr. and Mrs. J. Denhalter, Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Poulton, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Swan, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas John, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. R. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Parks, Judge and Mrs. J. D. Jones, Dr. and Mrs. F. F. Reed, Marshal and Mrs. Newel Knight, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. L. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Rob. Irvine, Mr. and Mrs. George Strong, Misses Anne Strong, Gussie Simpson, Vina Strong, Louise Keller, Florence Pike, Lillie Gates, Mamie Gates, Kate Clawson, Etta Davis, Beulah Bachman, Winnie Spafford, Rose and Daisy Moore, Cad-die Dunkley, Fanny, Sarah and Martina Stubbs, Jennetta Richards, Vina and Edie Fenn, Zina and Nomia Beck, Gertie Thurman, Edith Holdaway and Ada Broomhead; Messrs. Brighamquist, J. L. Lee, R. B. Thurman, Geo. A. Dusenberry, Richard Aley, L. Roy Brown, Thomas E. McGraw, Joseph E. Daniels, William Lee, Bert Hedquist, Will. Irvine, John C. Graham Jr., William Ward, Hynday Jensen, David Westwood, Ed. W. Hazekrover, Edwin Holt and James Osterman.

The ladies were all dressed most becomingly. Below are condensed descriptions of some of the costumes worn:

Lost a Leg

Blood Poisoned by a Slight Accident

But Hood's Sarsaparilla Purified, and Restored Health.

"Gentlemen:—Three years ago a file penetrated one of my legs just above the knee. I was some distance from a doctor and the wound was not properly dressed. Failing to receive the necessary treatment,

Blood Poisoning set in. I became so weak and my system so much run down that I could not turn in bed or help myself in any way. After seven months' confinement, my wife took me to Walla Walla, Wash. Here the surgeons amputated my leg halfway between the knee and the hip. Following this my health improved slightly but shortly afterwards began to form on my body and caused me much pain and suffering. Several remedies were tried but did not give me relief. Finally Hood's Sarsaparilla was recommended and

I could see a change from the first. Gradually I have improved; I am growing stronger and the painful gatherings have disappeared and I am about cured of my
